ASSOCIATED STUDENT UNION MEETING

- A. Advisor - Report Given
- B. President - Report Given
- C. Executive Vice President - Report Given.
- D. Vice President of Finance - Report Given
- E. Treasurer - Report Given
- F. Secretary- Shared Governance Council (02/26/18): During this meeting we discussed certain emergency situations and how to go by them. One main topic of this discussion was building marshals. If one is not present during an emergency what happens. Not everyone knows about certain emergency protocols. After the committee discussed their goals for the rest of the semester. Once it got to the reports, I gave a report upon ASU about the ASLC, Town halls and Coffee with the captain.
- G. Chief Justice - On Thursday, I met with VP Benavides and Dean Fallert to talk about the food pantry. They were appreciative of the initiative, but they felt we needed more information so we will be meeting again to discuss further details. I also received an email inviting the Board to the Bruin Walk, which is to raise awareness for healthy living. For the ASLC, I have been working on the Certificates of Appreciation and Achievement.
- H. Chief Delegate - Report Given
- I. Historian - Report Given
- J. Commissioners/Senators -
 - Senator Dominguez: I attended the SAAVE Committee Meeting on March 1, 2018 in place of Chief Justice Hernandez. During the course of the meeting many things were discussed. The following are the most important things that I think I should report back to the board.
 - The school wants to make student outcomes for the workshops and events that the SAAVE committee provides. Natalie Wong is working on this and maybe going to make a survey to see what the students are learning.
 - The librarian wants to partner with the SAAVE Committee and ELAC's Women's Center to screen the film Half the Sky, which is a book that the 9 sister colleges of LACCD are making it the one book one college this semester.
 - The Husky Warrior Challenge is cancelled.
 - There is going to be a self-defense workshop at ELAC main campus April 19, 2018 in the E9 Women's Gym.
 - Self-defense workshop at South Gate Campus is TBA.
 - Health Center is have a Free HIV Testing event on April 11th and 24th. May change as Cecilia is talk to Tiffany because she wants to do the event.
 - Going to be a Resource Fair by Maria R. March 26 in the quad.
 - The committee also wants to bring back the film Hunting Ground and it would be available to anyone. The committee wants to make sexual assault awareness not only available to the students but the community as well.
 - They were wondering if ASU can send out emails to clubs to send if they want to fundraise at their events.
 - They also asked about funding for items and snacks for their events/workshops.
