When you completed your LACCD admissions application and/or your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and/or the California Dream Act Application, you indicated you had experienced or are experiencing housing insecurity. If you would like to receive enrollment priority and a California College Promise Grant, please complete and submit this verification form to the Financial Aid Office with the certification from the appropriate agency verifying your homeless status.

Definition:

- "Homeless" means lacking fixed, regular and adequate housing, which includes living in shelters, motels or cars, or temporarily living with other people because you had nowhere else to go.
- "Unaccompanied youth" means you are under 25 years of age and you are not living in the physical custody of your parent or guardian.

SECTION I

Were you determined to be an unaccompanied youth experiencing homelessness by:

- A high school or school district homeless liaison? YES NO
- A director of an emergency shelter or transitional housing program funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)? YES NO
- A director of a runaway or homeless youth basic center or transitional living program?
 YES NO

If you marked YES to any of the three questions above, please take this form to an appropriate certifying official who can verify your living situation and have them complete Section III then return this form to the Financial Aid Office.

If you answered NO to all three questions above, go to Section II.

SECTION II

If your living situation cannot be verified by the above agencies, does your living situation meet the following definition?

I am an unaccompanied youth (under age 25) experiencing housing insecurity or at risk of being homeless, meaning lacking in fixed, regular or adequate housing, which includes living in shelters, motels, or cars or temporarily living with other people ("couch surfing") because I have nowhere else to go.

Yes No

If you answer YES to the statement above, you must make an appointment with the Financial Aid Administrator. In addition, you must submit a typed, detailed statement regarding your current living situation along with this form when you meet with the Financial Aid Director.
