Honors Class

MODERN LANGUAGES
French 026:

Understanding French Culture Through Film

M-Th, 6:50-9:20pm, Professor Brown, E3 255

Session #12110 (located under Modern Languages/French)

Students explore the prolific output of feature and documentary films that emphasize social and cultural themes in France. Discussion centers on how French film reflects the French social, cultural, and historical climate. Students become acquainted with the evolution of French cinema from the post WWII era to the present. The course is conducted in English. Films are subtitled in English.

This class meets the requirements for Honors Program Certification.
