APPLICATION GUIDELINES

Social Sciences Department

The Social Sciences Department, in partnership with the ELAC Foundation, sponsors the Helen Miller Bailey Scholarship. The selection of scholarship recipients and the distribution of funds will be performed by a committee selected by the Social Sciences Department. Award amounts range from $100 to 1,000.

The Helen Miller Bailey Model

Dr. Helen Miller Bailey was a model educator and the college library was named after her in recognition of her life work. She was an expert in Latin American History and often traveled to Mexico. She was tireless in promoting the interests of her Hispanic students. This scholarship was created to further her guidance of Hispanic students, but students of all backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The selection criteria are based on the model set by Dr. Bailey. To satisfy the selection criteria and be considered for the Helen Miller Bailey Memorial Scholarship Award, the following items must be completed.

Award Requirements

1. Must be a current ELAC student who will continue at ELAC or transfer to a 4 year university in 2012-13;
2. Must be majoring in a Social Science discipline, e.g., History, Political Science, Sociology, or Economics;
3. Must have completed at least one semester at East Los Angeles College with a 3.0 GPA or better;
4. Must have career plans that follow the model set by Dr. Bailey, preference will be given to candidates who demonstrate they plan to return to the community and help others;
5. Must submit a brief essay about yourself, including your background, your financial needs, your career interests, your present service to the college and/or community, and how you plan to help others in your choice of career. Emphasize your interest in a specific social science major and what you hope to give back to the community;
6. Must submit 2 letters of recommendation, preferably from ELAC faculty members and at least one member of the Social Sciences Department;
7. Completed application form;
8. Attach a recent copy of your transcripts for all your college work, including Spring 2012 courses;
9. Any additional evidence that you have selected a social science as an academic major is encouraged but not mandatory. This may be a notation in an official transcript or a letter on official letterhead from a college where you are applying for transfer. Preference is given for social science majors.

THE DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING THE APPLICATION IS Friday, March 16, 2012, 4:00PM.

Please provide completed application, all supporting items and any questions regarding this scholarship to the Social Science Department office F7-307.
