PREAMBLE

We the Associated Student Union of East Los Angeles College hereby present an accurate delineation of the ASU Board qualifications and subdivisions of power. This organization does not desire to portray merely a strict image of governance; furthermore, its main concern focuses on being a source of encouragement and responsibility that will promote and increase the intellectual, physical, social, and cultural growth of this college. In order to provide an expanded educational and social service program for all students we hereby establish this ASU Constitution and its Bylaws according to the standards and regulations of the State of California and the Trustees of the Los Angeles Community College District.

ARTICLE I

Section 1: Name of Organization

The name of this organization shall be the Associated Student Union of East Los Angeles College, henceforth, referred to as the ASU.

Section 2: Place of Business

The principal place for the transaction of this organization shall be:

East Los Angeles College
1301 Avenida Cesar Chavez
Monterey Park, California 91754

South Gate Educational Center
2340 Firestone Boulevard
South Gate, California 90280

Section 3: Colors and Mascot

The official colors of East Los Angeles College shall be forest green and white. In keeping with tradition, the official mascot shall be represented by the "Siberian Husky" to be defined as a costumed dog and/or a live animal which will attend public rallies and ASU sponsored events.

ARTICLE II

Section 1: Membership

- A. All students officially enrolled and attending classes at East Los Angeles College are strongly encouraged to participate in ASU sponsored activities and become ASU members. Regularly enrolled students may be eligible to hold office subject to good standing with the college and acquisition of ASU membership. (Good standing shall be determined by Article II, Section 2A of this Constitution.)

- B. A nominal membership fee will be assessed each semester/term upon students. The amount of said fee will be determined in consultation between the ASU Board, the ASU advisor and the college administration. The amount of the fee will be reviewed regularly and adjusted as deemed appropriate in the same consultative manner.

Section 2: Qualifications

- A. No candidate can have more than 80 degree-applicable units completed in the District. Exceptions will be decided by the College President based upon recommendations made by the Executive Vice President of Student Services. The candidate must be a current paid ASU member (LACCD Administrative Regulation S-9).

- B. At the time of election, or appointment and throughout the term of office, the officer or board member must be actively enrolled in and must successfully complete a minimum of 5 units per semester. The officer or board member must have and maintain a cumulative and current GPA of at least 2.0 in units completed at all the colleges in the District during the semesters in which the student government office is applied for and held. Current means the most recently completed semester or session. The Chief Student Service's Officer and/or designee will check grades after every semester and session. Students falling below this requirement will automatically forfeit their office (LACCD Administrative Regulation S-9).

- C. The term of office for all members of student government shall begin at midnight on July 1st of each year and shall expire at 11:59 pm on June 30th of the following year, except for the office of president for which if no person is designated to fill the position as of June 30th, the incumbent shall continue to serve until a replacement is determined.

- D. A candidate officer or board member is ineligible for office if he/she has served more than four (4) semesters in any one or more student government elected or appointed offices in the District (LACCD Administrative Regulation S-9)

- E. No one person shall hold more than one ASU student government office at the same time. No one person on the ASU Board shall be an officer of a chartered club.

Section 3: Vacancies
