East Los Angeles College

Facts in Brief

Background

East Los Angeles College: Originally established in September 1945 on the campus of Garfield High School. The college consists of an 82-acre main campus established in Monterey Park in 1948, and the South Gate Educational Center which was established in 1997.

Our Mission

East Los Angeles College empowers students to achieve their educational goals, to expand their individual potential, and to successfully pursue their aspirations for a better future for themselves, their community and the world.

East Los Angeles College offers a comprehensive range of credit and noncredit programming that lead to transfer, degree completion and career technical certificates. The college programming includes Public Service Academies, which serve to provide ongoing training to the community’s law enforcement and fire protection agencies.
