ELAC Speech Team

Monterey Park, Calif.---Students from East Los Angeles College (ELAC) Speech Team earned top performance awards at two competitive speech tournaments during the Veteran’s Day weekend in El Cajon, California and Northridge, California.

In El Cajon, first-time competitor Miguel Ayala was recognized as the best novice competitor in the Poetry event at the single-day tournament on Friday, November 8th. Teammate Raul Herrera also took high ranks in the advanced division of Poetry and Program Oral Interpretation, a performance event that blends multiple styles of literature.

The team was back in competition on Sunday, November 10th, this time at California State University, Northridge (CSUN).

ELAC students Carlos De La Torre, Israel Beltran, Nathan Lopez, and Raul Herrera together earned five performance awards, making the weekend a successful one.

The CSUN tournament attracted more than twenty schools from around the nation.

ELAC Speech continues to recruit throughout the year, allowing interested students to sign up for Communication Studies 106 or join the ELAC Speech Team Club, an Associated Student Union supported component of the program.

Those interested in learning more about the program should contact the team’s coaches: Ryan Smith, SMITHRL3@elac.edu; J. Edward Stevenson, STEVENJE@elac.edu; TEL: 323.415.5078; OFFICE: E8-102.

2nd Annual Día De Los Muertos Event

As event coordinator of our 2nd annual Día De Los Muertos Event at East Los Angeles College, I would like to take this opportunity to thank many people for helping us make this program possible. In particular, I would like to express my gratitude to ASU for its primary sponsorship. Also, vendors and student organizations such as MEXA, Entrepreneurs Club, SASA, and ESSP that were present were essential in promoting cultural awareness on this day. Muchas gracias to all of them. Due to the participation of all of those involved, we had an extremely successful turnout with approximately 800-900 people in attendance throughout the day (double the number of last year).

In addition, I want to acknowledge faculty, administration and staff at the college, who were also instrumental in assisting to make our event a success. Among those who provided their unconditional support, I would like to make special mention of Dean Sonia Lopez, who was out at the event from start to finish. Sonia, without your help and dedication, this day would have not been possible and I am eternally grateful to you. Also, I would like to thank President Marvin Martínez, Vice President Oscar Valeriano, Evelyn Escatolia, Susan Okawa, ASU President Jesse Orellano, Magaly Rojas-Gonzalez(ASU) and Daveon Logan(ASU) for reaching out to help.

Of the Vincent Price Art Museum, I would like to acknowledge Karen Rapp, Brian Porray, and Victor Parra for assisting us in our 10th annual Día de los Muertos Exhibit, which is running until November 26th. My Chicano Studies students put a lot of effort and time into the creation of their altars, and I thank you for your continued support to make this exhibit possible.

In addition, from the Department of Chicano Studies, I would like to further acknowledge Professors Eddie Flores, Andrew Monzón, Haydee Urita-López and Tony Sandoval. Thank you all for your backing. Also, thanks to Professors Mary Romo, Felipe López, Gerardo Gutiérrez, Rosalinda Moctezuma, and Leonard Melchor, for working our booth. This event could not be possible without your continued support and attendance.

Finally, I would like to give special thanks to the incredible line up of performers, who shared their amazing talents with us. Performing at this event were Conjunto Hueyapan de la Familia Herrera, the premiere son jarocho ensemble in the nation, From East Los Angeles, Quetzal, who are the 2013 Grammy Award winners for Best Alternative Rock Band, absolutely untouchable performance!!! Also the highly acclaimed son montuno group Domingo Siete as well the Xipe Totec Aztec Dancers and the Ixtli-Yoolotl Dance Company. Their presentations received incredible positive feedback and served to artistically enhance Día de los Muertos at ELAC. Once again, to all of our supporters and those involved, thank you very much for this festival would not have been possible without all of you involved! See you next year for the 3rd Annual!!

Sincerely,

Professor Angelita Rovero-Herrera,
Department of Chicano Studies

Get Research Ready!

Know Your Library: A scavenger hunt guides student to library services and illustrates the library’s layout and the organization of materials.

Research Boot Camp: It’s time to get your research skills in shape! Students gain useful strategies on how to read and understand an assignment prompt, as well as identify the right sources needed to complete the assignment. In other words, we’ll be flexing our research muscles and working hard!

Get Books: Yes, the library actually has books and you can find them! Through hands-on exploration students learn the organization of library materials and how to use the library catalog to find books and DVDs.

Get Articles: Research is all about articles and guess what? The library has everything you need to find all kinds of articles. Students are introduced to our article databases and practice finding various types of articles.

Smart Google Searching: Do you control Google or does Google control you? Google’s awesome, but like all superheroes you must learn to harness this powerful information tool! Learn helpful tips to get better and credible websites.

Cite Right: You’ve found information, but now how do you cite it? How do you know your paper is plagiarism free? Students are introduced to the concept of citation using MLA, review examples of plagiarism, and create an MLA citation.

Go Digital with E-Books: Everybody’s going digital and you can too! Want to learn how to access ELAC’s electronic book collection like a pro? Then come join us as we explore our ebook catalog, as well as Google books.

*One on One Help: Students must come with a relevant research assignment in hand to receive help from a librarian. Space is limited to 10 students per session. Students without an assignment will be asked to sign up for another workshop.
