Come hear the college leadership explain the goals and priorities for the 2014-15 budget year:

➢ What adjustments departments are likely to see in their budgets?
➢ What new initiatives are planned to increase student success?
➢ What challenges remain for 2014-15 and beyond?

From: Marvin Martinez, President

Subject: 2014 COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY

This year’s Commencement Ceremony will be held on Tuesday, June 10, 2014, at 6:30 p.m. in Weingart Stadium.

The manner in which an institution conducts its commencement ceremony reflects on the quality of its educational program and the quality of the institution itself. There are few events as exciting and visually gratifying for students and their families, as the appearance of faculty and classified staff in full academic regalia at the commencement ceremony. I encourage you to participate; it will mean a great deal to our students and their families.

All participating faculty and classified staff must wear academic regalia in order to march in the processional.

Please return the lower portion of this bulletin to the President's Office indicating whether or not you will attend the June 2014 Commencement Ceremony.

Please tear-off and return:

To: MARVIN MARTINEZ, PRESIDENT

Ricardo Valverde: Experimental Sights, 1971-1996
May 17 to July 26, 2014
Large Gallery, Vincent Price Art Museum

The late Los Angeles–based photographer and artist Ricardo Valverde (1946–1998) is featured in a career retrospective at VPAM that highlights more than 100 artworks spanning a twenty-five–year period of production.

Ricardo Valverde: Experimental Sights, 1971–1996 includes artworks in a wide range of media: from black-and-white and color photographs, to solarized and intervened gelatin silver prints, to paintery collages that incorporate photographs and are mounted on canvas. The exhibition includes several videos, slide projections from Valverde’s photographs of lowriders, and Day of the Dead celebrations.

VPAM’s exhibition is the first survey of Valverde’s extensive body of work, and is undertaken in partnership with the UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center, which recently published Ricardo Valverde, a new monograph in its award–winning A Ver: Revisioning Art History series. Ricardo Valverde is written by Ramón García.
