Notes:

The table is intended to include all disciplines that may use library books for research purposes. If you do not see your discipline, let Ran know.

All titles should be directly related to research assignments; these funds are not for textbooks.

This discipline-based budget is not a maximum; it is a minimum set aside until the deadline of October 31, 2014.

Project MATCH
Needs Mock-Interview Volunteers

Project MATCH will be holding a mock-interview session for the interns near the end of the semester. The interviews will be held on Saturday, November 22nd. The event is tentatively scheduled to take place at LA Valley College.

They are looking for any faculty (full time or adjunct), administrators and staff members. It is preferred that the interview panel members had experience serving on hiring committees.

Each volunteer will be on a 3-4 person team and will conduct formal mock interview for approximately 8 Project MATCH interns.

At the end of the day, the volunteers will gather for a debrief and panel discussion. Breakfast and lunch will be provided and flex credit is available. Please contact Joanna Zimring-Towne (zimrinjb@piercecollege.edu) if you are interested in participating. The ELAC contact is Gabriella Lopez, Librarian, 323-357-6214, lopezgm@elac.edu

Jack Kent Cooke Foundation

Each year the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation works to identify the best community college students in the nation to receive its prestigious Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship, which awards up to $40,000 per year renewable for up to three years, making it the country’s largest, most competitive undergraduate transfer scholarship.

Over the past few years, six ELAC students have received this very prestigious scholarship award. This year, all students who meet the minimum criteria for the scholarship can apply!

The Application officially Open on Monday, October 6th and will close on December 2nd 5:00 pm Central Time.

Please help us to identify students and encourage them to apply!

HTTP://WWW.JKCF.ORG/SCHOLARSHIP-PROGRAMS/UNDERGRADUATE-TRANSFER/

MINIMUM ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Be a current student at an accredited U.S. community college or two-year institution with sophomore status by December 31, 2014, or a recent graduate (since spring 2010).
- Plan to enroll full time in a baccalaureate program at an accredited college or university in fall 2015.
- Have a cumulative undergraduate grade point average of 3.5 or better on a scale of 4.0 (or the equivalent).
- Demonstrate significant unmet financial need. We will consider applicants with family income up to $95,000. However, we anticipate that a majority of scholarship recipients will be eligible to receive a Pell grant.
- Have not previously been nominated for the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship.
- Have not previously attended a four-year institution.

Workshop Descriptions:

Research Boot Camp: It’s time to get your research skills in gear! Students gain useful strategies on how to read and understand an assignment prompt, as well as identify the right sources needed to complete the assignment. Limited to 10 students, this workshop is for students who have a research assignment. A librarian will help each student individually. Students must bring their research assignment prompt to attend.

Get Books: Yes, the library actually has books and you can find them! Through hands-on exploration students learn the organization of library materials and how to use the library catalog to find books and DVDs.

Get Articles: Research is all about articles and guess what? The library has everything you need to find all kinds of articles. Students are introduced to our article databases and practice finding various types of articles.

Smart Google Search: Do you control Google or does Google control you? Google’s awesome, but like all superheroes you must learn to harness this powerful information tool! Learn helpful tips to get better and credible websites.

Cite Right: You’ve found information, but how do you cite it? How do you know your paper is plagiarism free? Students are introduced to the concept of citation using MLA, review examples of plagiarism, and create an MLA citation.

Go Digital with E-Books: Everybody’s going digital and you can too! Want to learn how to access ELAC’s electronic book collection like a pro? Then come un us as we explore our ebook catalog, as well as Google books.

Roberto Chavez and the False University A Retrospective
Sept. 13 to Dec. 6, 2014

Legendary visual artist, Roberto Chavez, grew up in East L.A., earned his MFA from UCLA, and joined the East Los Angeles College (ELAC) Faculty in the 1980s as a pioneering educator in the Hedding Chicano Studies Department.

More than fifty artworks dating from the late 1940s to the present are included in this retrospective. Subjects range from self-portraits to portraits of friends and family, as well as works that reference socioeconomic and political conditions of the time.

A full-color, 48-page catalogue with original essays by curators Sylvia Vergas and William Monroe accompanies the show. Vergas writes about the impact Chavez had as an educator and mentor on students and artists; she also focuses on the controversial 1979 whitewashing of his ELAC mural, The Path to Knowledge and the False University. This catalogue is made possible with support from the Union Pacific Foundation.

Related Events:
- Saturday, Sept. 20, 2:30 p.m. - Exhibition walk through with Roberto Chavez
- Saturday, Sept. 30, 4 to 6 p.m. - Opening reception for the artist
- Saturday, Oct. 1, 2 to 4 p.m. - Panel discussion "Roberto Chavez: The Artist as Mentor"

Roya Falahi

Study of Studs
Sept. 23 to Dec. 6, 2014

Roya Falahi (b. IRAN, 2006) is known for her large-format photography in which she combines portraiture with tableaux compositions. Falahi’s striking images resonate with visual and psychological impact—they are technically flawless and often deeply ambiguous. As viewers, we are rarely afforded the opportunity to meet with the subject’s gaze; the artist often depicts herself obscured by a veil or striped visage.

Study of Studs includes the artist’s latest textile-based pieces that are created from the same studio she often uses for her head coverings. Influenced by a variety of sources—from current global-political contexts and Iranian American culture to hard-rock music and fashion imagery, Falahi’s work investigates contemporary issues of identity and culture.

Study of Studs is presented in conjunction with this fall’s Los Angeles/Islam Arts Initiative (LA/IAI), coordinated by the Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs.

Related Events:
- Tuesday, Sept. 27, 4:00 p.m. - Opening reception for the artist
- Monday, Oct. 19, 7-10 p.m. - Artist Talk

2014 Juried Student Art Exhibition
Sept. 23 to Dec. 6, 2014

Start off the new school year with a look at some of the most outstanding artwork produced by East Los Angeles College students. VPAW’s annual student exhibition is a juried show; our 2014 jurors are CSULB Professor of Art Marie Tiberia, and graphic & multimedia designer Raul Vergara.

This year, fifty-six artworks were selected from more than 240 submissions. Students who have taken a class in the studio art, architecture, or photography departments within the past academic year are eligible to submit their work for consideration.

A list of participating artists is posted on VPAW’s web site.

The 2014 Juried Student Art Exhibition was organized by Kelley Shin, 2014 Getty Multicultural Undergraduate Intern.

Related Event:
- Tuesday, Sept. 23, 6 to 8 p.m. - Opening reception for the artist
