A discussion about “Please, Don’t Bury Me Alive!/Por Favor, No Me Entierren Vivo!”, the first Chicano feature film ever made. Meet the filmmaker, Efrain Gutierrez, and UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center Director, Chon Noriega. There will be select film clips and Q&A.

Efrain Gutierrez directed and produced “Please, Don’t Bury Me Alive!” This film was recently inducted into the Library of Congress National Film Registry. Chon A. Noriega is a professor in the UCLA Department of Film, Television, and Digital Media and director of the UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center.

Produced and directed by San Antonio-native Efrain Gutierrez, Please, Don’t Bury Me Alive! takes a highly politicized and unflinching look at life in the Chicano barrios and the damage wreaked on communities by the Vietnam War. Largely forgotten for several decades, the film’s resurgence was largely thanks to the work of UCLA film scholar Chon Noriega, who spent nearly a decade tracking down Gutierrez in order to get his hands on an original print of the film. SEXUAL ASSAULT AWARENESS AND VIOLENCE EDUCATION TEAM (SAAVE)

Presents:

COMMUNITY RESOURCE FAIR

Date: Wednesday, April 29, 2015
Location: D3 Walkway (Across from lunch truck)
Time: 10:00am-2:00pm

Why Denim Day?
In 1998, an Italian Supreme Court decision overturned a rape conviction because the victim wore jeans. Wearing jeans became an international symbol of protest against erroneous and destructive attitudes about sexual assault. Break the silence that surrounds all forms of sexual violence.

Wear denim and join us at the Denim Day Community Resource Fair!!!

If you are interested in participating or for more information, please contact Maria Rosales-CalWORKs Program at (323) 265-8654.

LACCD internship program, Project MATCH (Mentors Act to Change History) is looking for full time or part-time faculty members to mentor the 2015 Project MATCH interns. Project MATCH (Mentors Act to Change History) began in 1991 in an effort to recruit classroom faculty, librarians, and counseling interns and provide them with an opportunity to learn and practice skills appropriate for working with community college students.

As a mentor, you will receive an $800 stipend for guiding your intern as he or she explores a community college career. Mentors are needed for day and evening schedules (Monday – Friday).

During the fall semester, each intern will participate in one of his or her mentor’s three-unit courses (or the equivalent weekly time commitment - 3 hours a week - for counseling and library science interns).

Mentor responsibilities include mentor orientation on May 28; meeting with your intern at least once prior to the fall semester; providing your intern with hands-on experience covering all aspects of teaching, counseling or library work; assisting your intern in preparation of lesson plans, developing classroom activities, integrating your intern in primary activities (classroom teaching, counseling sessions, library duties); providing feedback to your intern; orienting your intern to your campus and inviting him or her to department, committee, or senate meetings.

If you are interested in mentoring an intern, please complete the mentor application form by Friday, April 27. You can contact Gabriella Lopez, librarian, Project MATCH Steering Committee member (lopezgm@elac.edu) if you need an application form.

Workshop Policies

- Verification of attendance is provided upon completion of a worksheet/assignment, which is reviewed by the workshop instructor.

- Students will not receive an attendance verification form for a workshop that he/she has already attended in the same semester, but students are welcome to retake a workshop just to refresh research skills.

- Students must enroll at least one day in advance at library.elac.edu/enroll. Workshops are limited to 20 students.

- Workshops start on time. Late students will not be admitted.

- Students practice hands-on research skills in each workshop. Keyboarding skills and basic familiarity with computers are recommended.

- Additional workshop info @ researchguides.elac.edu/workshops
