Three new shows open this summer 2015!

May 16 to August 1, 2015
Nao Bustamante: Soldadera

VPAM presents Soldadera, a multi-media exhibition that marks artist Nao Bustamante’s solo West Coast museum debut. Soldadera presents a variety of projects inspired by the women, known as “soldaderas” in Spanish, who fought during the Mexican Revolution (1910-20).

Bustamante creates hybrid works that hover over the line between fact and fiction, between the past and the future, and engage the soldadera’s capacity, as a figure, to signify vulnerability and violence. Bustamante deploys a methodology she calls “speculative re-enactment.” She asks: How can we reach across time to know the soldadera’s experience of the past?

Soldadera is guest curated by Jennifer Doyle, Professor of English at UC Riverside. It is supported by UC Riverside’s Queer Lab and by the University of California Institute for Research in the Arts.

Related Events:
- Saturday, May 16, 4 to 6 p.m. — Opening Reception and Performance
- Friday, May 22, 7 p.m. — Walkthrough with curator Jennifer Doyle
- Saturday, June 20, 2 p.m. — Walkthrough with curator Jennifer Doyle
- Saturday, July 11, 2 p.m. — Conversations with the Soldadera

Admission and events are free and open to the public.

June 13 to August 1, 2015
Chicanitas: Small Paintings from the Cheech Marin Collection

VPAM is delighted to be the first and only hosting venue in Los Angeles for the exhibition Chicanitas: Small Paintings from the Cheech Marin Collection (size doesn’t matter). This eclectic group show showcases seventy paintings by twenty-nine artists from Marin’s noted art collection.

Marin, an entertainer who is well known for his work in movies, television, and improvisational comedy, has been acquiring art for more than twenty years. He has amassed one of the renowned collections of Chicano art in private hands. His most recent passion is collecting small paintings averaging 16-inches square and smaller in size. In contrast to other works in his collection that promote the Chicano art movement of the mid-60s and 70s, the content of Chicanitas comprises small works that represent the artists’ internal or personal reflections rather than responses to political, social or cultural situations.

Related Events:
- Saturday, June 13, 4 to 6 p.m. — Opening Reception for the artists
- Thursday, July 9, 4 to 7 p.m. — An afternoon with Cheech Marin includes walkthrough, artist panel discussion and book signing

June 13 to August 1, 2015
Joel Garcia: Tatewari

The work of Los Angeles-based artist Joel “Tato.e.na” Garcia is featured in a solo show in the HOY SPACE. Garcia’s exhibition title, Tatewari, means “changed by fire” and refers to the transformation of young men who live at the personal intersection of the barrio and their own indigenous roots.

Through tattoos or clothing, these urban “indios” adopt non-traditional regalia to create personas to face a world not yet ready to accept them.

Tatewari features experimental prints that use natural inks and dyes derived from agave, prickly pear, aloes vera, among other plants. These prints are part of a larger installation including re-mixed traditional indigenous objects.

Garcia is Director of Programs and Operations at Self Help Graphics & Arts. He is also a visual artist and prolific cultural organizer. He studied Illustration at Otis College of Art & Design (1996), and holds degrees in Photography (2002) and Business Management (2003) from East Los Angeles College.

Related Events:
- Saturday, June 13, 4 to 6 p.m. — Opening Reception for the artists
- Saturday, June 20, 2 p.m. — Solo artist Joel Garcia for a walk-through of his show

Graduation Ceremony at 6:30PM
May 12, 2015

To: ALL FACULTY AND CLASSIFIED STAFF
From: Marvin Martinez, President
Subject: 2015 COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY

This year’s Commencement Ceremony will be held on Tuesday, June 9, 2015, at 6:30 p.m. in Weingart Stadium.

The manner in which an institution conducts its commencement ceremony reflects on the quality of its educational program and the quality of the institution itself. There are few events as exciting and visually gratifying for students and their families, as the appearance of faculty and classified staff in full academic regalia at the commencement ceremony. I encourage you to participate; it will mean a great deal to our students and their families.

All participating faculty and classified staff must wear academic regalia in order to march in the processional.

Please return the lower portion of this bulletin to the President’s Office indicating whether or not, you will attend the June 2015 Commencement Ceremony.

Please tear-off and return:
