The ELAC Budget Committee invites you to attend the College Forum on Budget Priorities for FY 2015-2016

Monday, May 18, 2014
12:15-1:30 p.m.
G1-301AB

Classes and services are up at East Los Angeles College as we prepare to meet expectations for improvements on student success, student equity, and transfer and degree certification completion. College efforts will be supported with a $88 million budget and an estimated balance of approximately $13 million.

Come hear the college leadership explain the goals and priorities for the 2015-16 budget year:

- What adjustments departments are likely to see in their budgets?
- What new initiatives are planned to increase student success?
- What challenges remain for 2015-16 and beyond?

Three new shows open this summer 2015!

May 16 to August 1, 2015

Nao Bustamante: Soldadera

VPAM presents Soldadera, a multi-media exhibition that marks artist Nao Bustamante’s solo West Coast museum debut. Soldadera presents a variety of projects inspired by the women known as “soldaderas” in Spanish, who fought during The Mexican Revolution (1910-20).

Bustamante creates hybrid works that hover over the line between fact and fiction, between the past and the future, and engage the soldadera’s capacity, as a figure, to signify vulnerability and violence. Bustamante deploys a methodology she calls “speculative re-enactment.” She asks: How can we reach across time to know the soldadera’s experience of the past?

Soldadera is guest curated by Jennifer Doyle, Professor of English at UC Riverside. It is supported by UC Riverside’s Queer Lab and by the University of California Institute for Research in the Arts.

Related Events:
- Saturday, May 16, 4 to 6 p.m. - Opening Reception and live Performance
- Friday, May 22, 7 p.m. - Walkthrough with curator Jennifer Doyle
- Saturday, June 20, 2 p.m. - Walkthrough with curator Jennifer Doyle
- Saturday, July 11, 1-3 p.m. - Conversations with the Exhibition: Join the artist, curator and area writers in a forum exploring the issues raised by Bustamante’s exhibition

Admission and events are free and open to the public.

June 13 to August 1, 2015

Chicanitas: Small Paintings from the Cheech Marin Collection

VPAM is delighted to be the first and only hosting venue in Los Angeles for the exhibition Chicanitas: Small Paintings from the Cheech Marin Collection (size doesn’t matter). This eclectic group show showcases seventy paintings by twenty-nine artists from Marin’s noted art collection.

Cheech Marin, an entertainer who is well known for his work in movies, television, and improvisational comedy, has been acquiring art for more than twenty years. He has amassed one of the renowned collections of Chicano art in private hands. His most recent passion is collecting small paintings averaging 16 x 20 inches square and smaller in size. In contrast to other works in his collection that promote the Chicano art movement of the mid-60s and 70s, the content of Chicanitas comprises small works that represent the artists’ internal or personal reflections rather than responses to political, social or cultural situations.

Related Events:
- Saturday, June 13, 4 to 6 p.m. - Opening Reception for the artists
- Thursday, July 9, 4 to 7 p.m. - An afternoon with Cheech Marin includes walkthrough, artistic panel discussion and book signing

June 13 to August 1, 2015

Joel Garcia: Tatewari

The work of Los Angeles-based artist Joel “Tatewari” Garcia is featured in a solo show in the HOY SPACE. Garcia’s exhibition title, Tatewari, means “changed by fire” and refers to the transformation of young men who live at the personal intersection of the barrio and their own indigenous roots. Through tattoos or clothing, these urban “indios” adopt non-traditional regalia to create personas to face a world not yet ready to accept them.

Tatewari features experimental prints that use natural inks and dyes derived from agave, prickly pear, aloes vera, among other plants. These prints are part of a larger installation including re-mixed traditional indigenous objects.

Garcia is Director of Programs and Operations at Self Help Graphics & Art. He is also a visual artist and prolific cultural organizer. He studied Illustration at Otis College of Art & Design (1996), and holds degrees in Photography (2002) and Business Management (2003) from East Los Angeles College.

Related Events:
- Saturday, June 13, 4 to 6 p.m. - Opening Reception for the artist
- Saturday, June 20, 1-3 p.m. - Solo artist Joel Garcia for a walkthrough of his show

Cultivating Excellence

Part of the Accreditation process allows colleges to highlight programs and/or activities that exemplify extraordinary efforts. In other words, ELAC should brag about what they are doing well. We are looking to showcase these good efforts in the self study.

As the self-study process continues, the Accreditation Team is aware of many good efforts around the campus. Your input is always welcome and provides multiple different perspectives. We are hoping you can help identify excellent efforts.

So take this time to nominate a program/action that you believe has cultivated excellence at ELAC. (This is not nominating a person, but the actions that either an individual or a group has accomplished that fulfills ELAC’s mission – empowering students to fulfill their educational goals.)

This effort should fit into one of the four standards:
I. Mission, Academic Quality and Institutional Effectiveness, and Integrity
II. Student Learning Programs and Student Services
III. Resources: Human Resources, Facilities, Technology, Financial
IV. Leadership and Governance

*The Standards are broad and essentially cover every aspect of the college; so fitting into a standard should not impede one in nominating a program/action.

The description nominating a program/action should be no longer than Friday May 29, 2015. Include a contact person name and email for further communication.

The newly created Pathway to Law School Transfer Program is now accepting application for Fall 2015.

The program is designed for students who are interested in or believe that they may be interested in a career in law. The Pathway to Law School will demystify law school and provide a broad exposure to the legal field. This is a transfer program with the goal of assisting students to transfer in a timely manner and to prepare them for eventual attendance at a law school.

More information regarding this new program can be found under the “Academic Programs” link on the ELAC webpage under the “Pathway to Law School” link.

The Coordinator, Christine Rodriguez, may be contacted at (323) 265-8939 or via email at lawpathway@elac.edu.

Find Articles: Research is all about articles and guess what? The library has everything you need to find all kinds of articles. Students are introduced to our article databases and practice finding various types of articles.

Find Books: Yes, the library actually has books and you can find them! Through hands-on exploration students learn the organization of library materials and how to use the library catalog to find books and DVDs.

Go Digital with E-Books: Everybody's going digital and you can too! Want to learn how to access ELAC's electronic book collection like a pro? Then come join us as we explore our ebook catalog, as well as Google books.

Cite Right: You've found information, but now how do you cite it? How do you know your paper is plagiarism free? Students are introduced to the basics of citation using MLA and they create an MLA citation and learn a variety of online citation help tools.

Workshop Policies

- Verification of attendance is provided upon completion of a worksheet/assignment, which is reviewed by the workshop instructor.

- Students will not receive an attendance verification form for a workshop they have already attended in the same semester, but students are welcome to retake a workshop just to refresh research skills.

- Students must enroll at least one day in advance @ Library.elac.edu/enroll. Workshops are limited to 20 students.

- Workshops start on time. Late students will not be admitted.

- Students practice hands-on research skills in each workshop. Keyboarding skills and basic familiarity with computers are recommended.

- Additional workshop info @ researchguides.elac.edu/workshops

Water Saving Tips for H₂OME
What One Person Can Do to Save Water (and Money) at Home

Saves 0-25 Gallons/Day
- Use a shut-off nozzle & water bucket to wash your car
- Take shorter showers
- Install flow restrictors and fix leaks in indoor plumbing and outdoor sprinkler systems
- Turn off the water when washing dishes, brushing teeth or shaving
- Use a broom instead of a hose to clean patios, driveways and sidewalks
- Cover pools and spas

Saves 25-50 Gallons/Day
- Water lawn and gardens in cooler morning or evening hours
- Install low volume toilets and water-saving clothes and dish washers
- Run only full loads in dish and clothes washers

Saves 50+ Gallons/Day
- Install “smart” sprinkler controllers, drip irrigation systems, and rotating sprinkler nozzles
- Landscape with California Native Plants
- Support efforts to expand water recycling and use of reclaimed water
