Harvest: The Story of the Children Who Feed America

Who Picks Your Food?
Currently, more than 400,000 migrant child workers in the U.S. journey from their homes, traveling from state to state, farm to farm, crop to crop, as they pick the produce we all eat. Many of them are American citizens and work as many as 12 hours a day, six months a year, without protection of child labor laws. – www.foodday.org
