Degree Path and Requirements:

Noncredit Program: Reading and Writing Foundations, Certificate of Completion. This map is a suggested term-by-term sequence of courses to complete the program in a recommended time frame. This is an efficient and recommended plan, but actual plans may vary by individual student need. This map cannot replace a meeting with counselors. Academic Counseling.

Department Advising Notes:

These two courses can provide a bridge for students planning to take credit English courses or other credit subjects.

Program Description

The Reading and Writing Foundations Certificate of Completion prepares students to continue credit coursework in English or other subjects. The two-course sequence focuses on reading, writing, and vocabulary building.

Career and Transfer Opportunities

Academic Preparation courses are designed for students who wish to improve reading, writing, math, and study skills before enrolling in college-level credit courses. These courses also prepare students to take the GED/HiSET high school equivalency exams.

Visit the Transfer Center for transfer and guaranteed transfer information, which varies based on transfer college. Transfer Center. Make an appointment with a counselor for transfer information. Transfer Counseling Services. Students can visit Career and Job Services for career counseling and further exploration.
