Additional voting units consist of the following constituencies:

- Adjunct Faculty
- Chairs Council
- Curriculum Committee
- Learning Assessment Committee
- Non-represented Faculty
- Professional Development Committee
- Southeast Campus Council

Clause 1. Each unit shall be represented by one Senator, except for the Adjunct Faculty unit, which shall be represented by two Senators.

Clause 2 Eligibility for all units, except for the Adjunct Faculty unit, shall be restricted to full-time (regular and probationary) faculty members, as specified in the Constitution. Adjunct Faculty Senator eligibility shall be restricted to adjunct faculty members without a monthly rate assignment in the LACCD who are able to attend Senate meetings, are on a discipline seniority list, and have an active assignment in the semester being elected. Adjunct faculty with seniority who are temporarily serving in a limited full-time faculty position are also eligible to serve as an Adjunct Faculty Senator.

Section B. Elections

Clause 1. Elections for senators and officers will be held in the spring semester of odd years.

Clause 2. The Elections Committee.

1. The Elections Committee shall be responsible for elections of the Adjunct Faculty Senators, the Non-represented Faculty Senator, and the Senate Officers, including recall elections. The Elections Committee shall be established no later than the last meeting of the fall semester preceding the spring elections. At this time, the Senate shall select a committee chair and additional committee members. The Elections Committee is open to all faculty, but it shall be chaired by a Senator. Members of the Elections Committee shall be ineligible to run for Adjunct Faculty Senator, Non-represented Faculty Senator, or Senate office. The Elections Committee members shall maintain neutrality in all election procedures and campaigns, such as not engaging in recruitment of individual candidates.
2. The Elections Committee shall forward officer nomination forms and elections procedures for Senate approval by the second Senate meeting of the spring semester. This recommendation shall include requirements for candidate statements, an election timeline, the structure of potential candidate forums, and noticing of these procedures.

Clause 3. The Senate President shall inform voting units of the election of Senators by the first meeting of the spring semester of election years.

Clause 4. Election of Adjunct Faculty Senators.

1. The Adjunct Faculty Voting Unit shall elect its Senators by the second Senate meeting of March of odd years. During the first week of the spring semester, the Chair of the Elections Committee, with the assistance of the Senate President, will send an election announcement with the self-nomination form attached via the all-faculty email distribution list (#-ELAC Faculty List) or, if available, a part-time adjunct faculty distribution list. The self-nomination form shall include instructions for providing a brief candidate statement. Nominations will close at the end of February.
2. Following the closing of nominations, the Elections Committee, with the assistance of the Senate President, shall verify the eligibility of the nominees, as specified in the constitution and bylaws. The Chair of the Elections Committee, with the assistance of the Senate President, will disseminate candidate statements via the all-faculty email distribution list or, if available, a part-time adjunct faculty distribution list.

The election of the Adjunct Faculty Senator(s) shall be conducted by electronic ballot for a full week in March. All eligible nominees' names will appear on the ballot. Only adjunct faculty members without a monthly rate assignment in the LACCD are eligible to vote. The ballot for the Adjunct Faculty Senator shall allow each adjunct faculty member to choose one nominee. The two adjunct representative nominees who receive the highest number of votes shall be elected as Adjunct Faculty Senators.

Clause 5. Election of Non-represented Faculty Senator.

1. The Non-represented Faculty Voting Unit shall elect its Senator by the second Senate meeting of March of odd years. Non-represented Faculty shall include any full-time faculty on full reassignment and ineligible to vote in departmental elections.
2. By the end of the first week of the spring semester of odd years, the Senate President will provide a list of eligible Non-represented faculty to the Chair of the Elections Committee, who will then email eligible Non-represented faculty informing them of the need to elect their Senator for the upcoming two-year term. The Chair of the Elections Committee will send out a notice to all eligible Non-represented faculty requesting nominations to serve as the Non-represented Faculty Senator with nominations to be submitted with sufficient time to conduct the election via electronic ballot before the second Senate meeting in March. All Non-represented faculty members are eligible to vote.
3. The Elections Committee Chair will notify the Senate President of the results of the voting no later than the second meeting in March.

Clause 6. Election of Department/Voting Unit Senators.

Departments/voting units shall elect by majority vote one full-time faculty member to serve as its Senator at a meeting or by ballot by the second Senate meeting in March of odd years. The Senate President shall prepare a form on which each department/voting unit shall notify the Senate of its choice of Senator, and, if it so chooses, its Alternate Senator(s).

Clause 7. Senators-elect shall be invited to attend all remaining meetings of the Senate as non-voting observers through the end of the spring semester and will take office on the first day of July following the election.

Clause 8. Election of Officers.

1. The Elections Committee shall open the call for nominations at the second meeting in March of election years. Senators-elect shall be notified that they are eligible for all offices other than the President. Eligibility for the office of the President is specified in the constitution. All other officer nominees must be continuing senators or senators-elect to be eligible to run for office. Nominations shall be closed two weeks prior to the election of officers. If there is an office for which there are no nominees, the Academic Senate may approve a motion to reopen nominations for a period of one week. Following the close of nominations, the Elections Committee shall publicize nominees and the elections procedures. If, at the start of the meeting when the elections are held, there is an office for which there are no nominees, the Academic Senate may approve a motion to reopen nominations if at least 2/3 of the members present agree, after which nominations from the floor can be entertained.
2. Election of Officers shall be conducted at the second meeting in May.
3. Officers shall assume responsibilities on first day of July following the election.
4. In the event of a vacancy, the Elections Committee shall act expeditiously to hold an election to fill the vacancy, using the aforementioned process as a guide.

Section C. Duties of Officers

1. Consult and assist the President in the development of policy proposals and Senate correspondence, and review of policies related to the Academic Senate.
2. Serve on one or more institutional planning committees, which may include the Budget Committee, co-chairing when supported by a majority of faculty serving on those committees.
3. Perform the duties of the President as assigned by the President or when the President is unable to perform those duties and serve on various campus committees as necessary to fulfill this responsibility.
4. Attend all Academic Senate and Senate Executive Committee meetings.
5. Serve as one of the Senate's representatives on the District Academic Senate.
6. Perform other duties as assigned by the Senate Executive Committee or by the Academic Senate.

Clause 3. The duties and responsibilities of the Second Vice President (Vice President of Communications) shall be to:

1. Prepare an annually updated record of all Senate committee memberships, Senate representatives on college committees, and terms of office.
2. Assist chairs of Academic Senate committees when procedural questions arise.
3. Oversee and facilitate use of the Faculty Center.
4. Provide support for workshops and seminars on Senate-related topics as needed.
5. Create and maintain a Senate newsletter/website and/or circulate informational updates to the Senators and/or faculty as needed, including distributing the list of meeting dates to the Academic Senate.
6. Perform the duties of the President as assigned by the President or when the President or the First Vice President is unable to perform those duties. Serve on various campus committees as necessary to fulfill this responsibility.
7. Attend all Academic Senate and Senate Executive Committee meetings.
8. Perform other duties as assigned by the Senate Executive Committee or by the Academic Senate.

Clause 4. The duties and responsibilities of the Secretary shall be to:

1. Record the attendance and take the minutes of each Academic Senate meeting, distributing a draft copy of those minutes to the executive officers within ten days in the same format that has been used by the Academic Senate.
2. Provide final draft of the minutes to the Senate President one week in advance of the next Senate meeting.
3. Submit to the Senate President and the Second Vice President, at a mutually agreed upon time, a final copy of the minutes approved at the previous Senate meeting so that the Second Vice President may post the approved minutes on the Academic Senate Website.
4. Maintain electronic copy of minutes on, Academic Senate SharePoint or other electronic storage method.
5. Maintain/update Senate membership roster and schedule of meetings for posting on the Senate website by the Second Vice President.

6. Attend all Senate meetings and Senate Executive Committee meetings. (If an emergency occurs and the Secretary cannot attend a Senate meeting or prepare the minutes, the Secretary shall notify the President and make arrangements as soon as possible.)
7. Post meeting on Vision Resource Center or other flex-reporting and prepare and track attendance reports for faculty flex credit and reporting.
8. Perform other duties as assigned by the Senate Executive Committee or by the Academic Senate.

Clause 5. The duties and responsibilities of the Treasurer shall be to:

1. Proactively remind faculty members to pay their Academic Senate dues.
2. Promote the use of automatic payroll deduction for paying Academic Senate dues. Work with the ELAC Foundation to facilitate this process.
3. Maintain the Academic Senate checking account and distribute funds including processing expenditures as directed by the Senate President and/or Senate Executive Committee.
4. Prepare and distribute a Treasurer's Report to the Senate at a minimum of twice each semester.
5. Serve as Senate liaison to the ELAC Foundation and the Fiscal Office pertaining to Senate Scholarships and the Scholarship timeline. Maintain contact with the academic departments to determine the recipients of the Senate scholarships. Arrange with the ELAC Foundation to disburse the checks for these scholarships.
6. Attend all Senate meetings and Senate Executive Committee meetings.
7. Perform other duties as assigned by the Senate Executive Committee or by the Academic Senate.

Clause 6. The duties and responsibilities of the Curriculum Chair shall be to:

1. Prepare and distribute the agenda, draft minutes, and meeting materials before each Curriculum Committee meeting, ensuring compliance with the Brown Act.
2. Schedule, secure locations, and lead Curriculum Committee meetings.
3. Ensure faculty are informed about State curriculum standards and updates to Title 5, the CCCCO Program and Course Approval Handbook, and curriculum-related legislation.
4. Update faculty on District and local curriculum standards, including Board Rules, Administrative Procedures, and ELAC-specific resources.
5. Attend and represent Senate at District Curriculum Committee meetings and related trainings.

14. Submit curriculum summaries to the Academic Senate President for inclusion on the upcoming Academic Senate agenda.
15. Assist in the preparation, edit and review of College Catalog to ensure alignment with approved changes.
16. Perform other duties as assigned by the Senate Executive or by the Academic Senate.

Clause 7. The duties and responsibilities of the Parliamentarian shall be to:

1. Act as advisor to the President and the Academic Senate on rules of order.
2. Maintain the official copy of the Constitution and Bylaws, and have it available for reference at all Academic Senate meetings.
3. Serve as chair of the Senate's Constitution and Bylaws Committee.
4. Perform other duties as assigned by the Senate Executive Committee or by the Academic Senate.
5. Serve as a non-voting officer of the Senate unless they are also a Senator.

Clause 8. The duties and responsibilities of the Past President shall be to:

1. Advise the Senate President, as requested.
2. Serve as a resource on Senate history.
3. Perform other duties as assigned by the Senate Executive Committee or by the Academic Senate.

Section D. Senate Executive Committee

Clause 1. The duties and responsibilities of the Senate Executive Committee shall be to:

1. Assume the duties of the Academic Senate after the last Senate meeting of the regular semester through the start of the subsequent semester and at other times authorized by the Senate.
2. Prepare recommendations for consideration by the Academic Senate on academic and professional matters, such as the faculty hiring policy.
3. Assist the Academic Senate President with the following duties:
 - a. Setting the agendas of Academic Senate and Senate Executive Committee meetings.
 - b. Preparing the Program Review and Annual Update Plans for the Academic Senate.
 - c. Other duties as needed.

Clause 2. In the official minutes, the Senate Executive Committee may also be referred to as the Senate Exec.

Section E. Committees

Clause 1. The Senate shall have Standing Committees as described in this section. The Senate and its standing committees may create subcommittees, task forces and work groups in order to facilitate the work of the standing committee. Subcommittees, task forces and work groups established by standing committees are subject to the approval of the Executive Committee.

Clause 2. Unless otherwise indicated, the Senate President shall appoint all Senate committee members and chairpersons. Except for committee chairs that are elected by the Senate and members that are specifically required to serve on committees as prescribed by these Bylaws, all committee members and committee chairs appointed by the Senate President under the provisions of this Article may be removed from the appointed positions for cause, such as poor attendance, documented lack of collegiality in committee meetings, documented lack of participation in committee meetings, and for repeated actions contrary to the positions and well-being of the Academic Senate.

Clause 3. ELAC faculty members with a current faculty assignment are eligible to serve on Senate committees.

Clause 4. List of Academic Senate Standing Committees:

- Chairs Council
- Committee on Academic Freedom and Ethics (CAFÉ)
- Constitution and Bylaws Committee
- Curriculum Committee
- Distance Learning Committee
- Elections Committee
- Global Education and Engagement Committee (GEEC)
- Information Technology Faculty Advisory Committee (ITFAC)
- Learning Assessment Committee (LAC)
- Legislative Liaison Committee
- Professional Development Committee
- Senate Executive Committee

Clause 5. The position of chair of an Academic Senate committee shall be open to all faculty members and selected by the members of the committee with exception of the Chairs Council, Constitution and Bylaws Committee, Curriculum Committee, Distance Learning Committee, Elections Committee, Professional Development Committee, Senate Executive Committee, Learning Assessment Committee, and Legislative Liaison Committee.

Clause 6. List of Committees with Academic Senate Representatives:

Accreditation Steering Committee
Budget Committee
Educational Planning Subcommittee (EPSC)
ELAC Shared Governance Council (ESGC)
Facilities Planning Subcommittee (FPSC)
Faculty Hiring Prioritization Committee (HPC)
Fourth Attempt Committee
Graduation Committee
Grants Committee
Loss of Priority Enrollment Committee
Professional Growth Committee
Program Review and Viability Committee (PRVC)
Public Art Committee
Southeast Campus Council (SeCC)
Standing Student Grievance Committee
Strategic Planning Committee (SPC)
Student Equity and Achievement Program Advisory Committee (SEA-PAC)
Technology Planning Subcommittee (TPSC)
Transfer Committee

Clause 7. The ELAC Academic Senate representatives on the District Academic Senate (DAS) include the Senate President, the First Vice President, and two additional faculty members elected by the Senate, in accordance with the DAS Constitution and Bylaws. All ELAC Senate representatives serving on the DAS are obligated to follow the direction given by the ELAC Academic Senate. The Senate President shall recommend faculty representatives to serve on all other District committees with the exception of District Discipline Committees. For District Discipline Committees, the Senate President shall ensure that faculty members from the specific disciplines are participating in the selection of their representatives for their district discipline committee.

Clause 8. The Second Vice President shall maintain a list of committees and of Senate membership on committees.

Clause 9. The Senate President shall make appointments to the aforementioned committees subject to approval by the Senate, with the exception of HPC, DAS, and Curriculum Committee positions that require election by the Senate.

Clause 10. Unless specified elsewhere by official action of the Senate, committee appointments are approved by the Senate of odd numbered years to begin in the fall semester.

Clause 11. Length of committee service shall be two years with the exception of six years for Curriculum Committee members.

Section F. Meetings

Clause 1. Regular Senate meetings shall be held on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month during the semester. This schedule may be altered by a simple majority of the Senate. At such meetings, the Senate may conduct its business using a consent agenda.

Clause 2. After conferring with the Senate Executive Committee, the Senate President may call special meetings of the Academic Senate.

Clause 3. The minutes of each meeting shall be reviewed and approved with modifications, if necessary, at the following meeting.

Clause 4. General faculty meetings are to be announced two weeks prior to the meeting. The President shall send these notices, along with the date, time, and a proposed agenda, to the all-faculty email distribution list at least two weeks prior to the meeting.

Clause 5. Each Senator shall make every effort to attend Senate meetings or have the Alternate Senator attend in their place. Absences from three consecutive meetings will render the department/unit seat vacant.

Clause 6. Items from the Floor shall be an agenda item at regular Senate meetings when requests are made during the approval of the agenda.

Section G. Vacancies

Clause 1. The Senate seat of an applicable unit shall be declared vacant when, in the absence of Alternate representation, the Senator:

1. resigns from the Senate.
2. accepts a leave of absence of any kind for one semester or longer.
3. separates from the department/unit or College.
4. is recalled by area of representation.
5. misses three consecutive Senate meetings.

Clause 2. Unfilled Senate vacancies shall not count when determining quorum.

Clause 3. Vacancies resulting from absences shall be considered filled upon the return of the Senator or Alternate. The Secretary will alert the President of a Senator's consecutive absences. When this concerns a department Senator, the President will notify the department chair and request that the vacancy be filled. Continued absence may result in the removal of the Senator by their department, to be replaced by another member of the department.

Clause 4. If a position of an elected Adjunct Faculty Senator is vacant, that position will be assumed by the candidate with the next most votes, with an active assignment. Ties shall be broken by lot by the Senate president at an Academic Senate meeting. In the event that none of the runners-up can assume the responsibilities of the position, the Academic Senate President shall appoint an eligible Adjunct Faculty Senator for the remainder of that term with the approval of the Senate.

Clause 5. If the position of the elected Non-represented Faculty Senator is vacant, that position will be assumed by the candidate with the next most votes. In the event that none of the runners-up can assume the responsibilities of the position, the Academic Senate President shall appoint an eligible Non-represented Faculty Senator for the remainder of that term with the approval of the Senate.

Clause 6. Senate Officer positions shall be considered vacant when, at a Senate meeting, the Senate is notified that the officer:

1. resigns from the Senate through an official notification received at a Senate meeting.
2. accepts a leave of absence of any kind for more than one semester.
3. is recalled by the Senate.
4. misses three consecutive Senate meetings.

Clause 7. Upon notification of the vacancy or the creation of a Senate Officer position, with the exception of the Presidency, the Senate will refer the matter to the Elections Committee. Filling the vacancy of the Senate Presidency shall follow the succession outlined in the Constitution. In the event that succession has been exhausted, the Senate shall refer the matter to the Elections Committee.

Clause 8. A Senator or Senate Officer who fills a vacancy will serve for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Section H. Recall of Senate Officers and Senators

Clause 1. An election for the recall of a Senate Officer shall be held upon written request of twenty-five percent of the full-time faculty or upon written request by a simple majority of the Senate

An election for the recall of an Adjunct Faculty Senator shall be held upon written request of twenty-five percent of the adjunct faculty or upon written request by a simple majority of the Senate.

An election for the recall of a Non-represented Faculty Senator shall be held upon written request of twenty-five percent of the non-represented faculty or upon written request by a simple majority of the Senate.

Clause 2. Written requests for recall elections shall be submitted to the Chair of the Elections Committee, shall be reported as an Item from the Floor by the Elections Committee Chair, and automatically referred to the Elections Committee.

Clause 3. The Elections Committee, excluding any Senate Officers potentially subject to recall, will verify the written request is valid and report its findings within two meetings of the Senate.

Clause 4. A valid written request for a recall election will result in a Notice of a Recall Election at the next Senate meeting with the recall election scheduled for the following Senate meeting.

Clause 5. Balloting for the recall election shall be conducted by the Elections Committee following the same procedures used for the elections of officers. Removal of a Senate Officer in a recall election shall require two-thirds of the Senate representatives.

Section I – Recall of Department Senators

An election for the recall of a Department Senator may be held by the Department. In the event that a majority of the full-time faculty and Adjunct Representative in the department vote to recall, the Department Chair shall notify the Academic Senate President and shall include the name of the newly elected Department Senator.

Section J. Finances

Faculty dues may be revised at any time during the academic year to maintain the integrity of the Senate's scholarship fund. Proposed increases in dues shall be noticed at the meeting prior to approval.

Section K. Review of Constitution and Bylaws

Clause 1. The Senate will conduct a review of the Senate Constitution and Bylaws at least every four years.

Clause 2. Amendments to the bylaws may be proposed by any voting member of the Senate. A majority vote of all Senators shall be necessary for adopting proposed amendments.

Bylaws Adopted: March 13, 2007; Revised August 22, 2016, April 28, 2020, December 8, 2020, May 23, 2023, May 28, 2024, and April 22, 2025
